THE FLYING BARREL JOINS FORCES WITH INKSPRESS

ADVERTISING & PROMOTIONAL PRODUCTS BROUGHT TO THE TEXAS MARKET

The Woodlands, Texas (February 2006) — Advertising newcomer to The Woodlands area, The Flying Barrel, has recently announced a new alliance with the award-winning promotional products company, Inkspress. The new pairing will bring competitively-priced promotional products to The Woodlands, and the rest of Texas.

Owner of The Flying Barrel, Michael Cooper, commented, "I have been in the marketing and advertising arena for almost 10 years. Working with Inkspress is a natural extension of the design and creative services I already offer." Cooper continued, "After working with Inkspress in the past, I immediately knew this was a company I could work with long-term. Their pricing is competitively low, and their customer service is top-notch. My customers in East, Central, and South Texas will really benefit from this new alliance."

Tom Staats, President of Inkspress stated, "We are always looking to get into new markets. Michael's background in advertising, marketing, and industry tradeshows, paired with our extensive product line should be a big success in Texas." Staats continued, "Texas residents interested in promotional products can simply visit www.inkspress.com and enter The Flying Barrel's promo code: ppTFB7705, to receive a 5% discount on their orders. Competitive pricing is already listed on the site, so customers can easily select the products they need without the hassle of price inquiries for each item selected."
